

Cedar Class Spring 2025

Welcome Back Cedar Class!

Welcome back and happy new year. I hope you all had an enjoyable break – it certainly sounds like the children have enjoyed themselves. The children have been showing off their expertise this week as they became quiz masters for their specialist subjects to support our sheep tracking. The children have also chosen the class novel to start the term, Nura and the Immortal Palace. Our class library has grown again over Christmas with five new exciting and memorable adventures to grab the imagination and take us to new phenomenal worlds. Please support your child at home by helping them to 'read for pleasure' every day and instilling joy and excitement in this.
